Charles-Town, July 1, 1771.

New Advertiſement.

To be SOLD By THOMAS POWELL,

At Mr. TIMOTHY'S Printing-Office in Broad-Street,

Dr. KEYSER's famous PILLS.

BEING the mildeſt, ſafeſt, and moſt efficacious ANTI-VENEREAL Remedy ever yet diſcovered, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe, even when the Blood and Juices are contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected by it; and prevents the Infection from taking Place, if a few Pills are taken in Time.

Freſh Infections, with all their attendant Symptoms, though ever ſo ſevere, are intirely carried off in a very ſhort Time, and ſo effectually as to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks:—And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with nocturnal Pains, inſtant Breakings out, and all other exaſperated Symptoms, are ſoon conquered by theſe Pills, and the Diſeaſe more effectually eradicated than it generally is by the Patient undergoing a Salivation, or any other Method whatever, and that too in ſo eaſy and ſafe a Manner (without impairing the Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience or Confinement) as may juſtly beſpeak them the beſt Venereal Antidote this Day in the World.

Thoſe, who from fatal Experience, find that they have entruſted their Conſtitutions into unſkillful Hands, may, by taking theſe Pills, be again reſtored to Health and Vigour; for they admit of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids, and on that Account have always proved very ſerviceable in all Scorbutic and Scrophulous Eruptions and Sores about the Body, &c.—They are alſo a certain and ſafe Cure for all Seminal Weakneſſes, which prove ſo deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous to the unhappy Individuals labouring under them, by impoveriſhing the Blood, and draining away the Radical Subſtance, or every Eſſence of Life: The bad Conſequences of which are not more fatal to themſelves than it would be to their Offspring (ſhould they have any) who would have Diſeaſes and Complaints entailed on them from their firſt coming into the World, and be obliged to drag a Life of Miſery and Pain, owing to the Irregularities and Miſ-Conduct of their Parents.—In ſhort, Dr. KEYSER's PILLS have proved ſo very efficacious in the different Stages of the French Illneſs, that (were they univerſally known, and properly taken) there is not the leaſt Doubt of their totally extirpating the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth.

The happy Effects of the above Pills have often been experienced in Rheumatic and Gouty Caſes, White Swellings, Rheumatiſms, Suppreſſions of Urine, Palſies, Hyſteric Diſorders, and the Green Sickneſs.—They will prevent an Apoplexy, Lethargy, Vertigo, Giddineſs or Swimming in the Head, Falling Sickneſs, &c. if a Box of them are taken Spring and Fall.——They are truly a Specific, and never fail curing a Fluor Albus, or that particular Weakneſs to which Females are ſo ſubject. They are ſo gentle in their Operation, that they may be taken at any Time, and even given to Children that have Worms.

Experience, which is the ſafeſt Baſis Knowledge can be founded on, has proved, and will further juſtify, the Virtues here attributed to the above Pills, and, I preſume, will be deemed a ſufficient Reaſon for endeavouring to make known the Merits of ſo valuable Medicine in this Colony, eſpecially, as I can aſſure the Public, with the ſtricteſt Truth, that it has already reſtored Health and Vigour to ſome Thouſands of People in different Parts of Europe, from its firſt Diſcovery to this Time, which is above Ten Years.

As Proofs of the Excellency of this Medicine, I have thought it neceſſary to mention the following Facts, which redound greatly to the Honour of the Inventor of it.——His Majeſty having of Dr. KEYSER's PILLS, and the conſtant Succeſs that attended them, ordered the moſt rigid and niceſt Examinations to be made by Twenty-ſeven eminent Phyſicians and Surgeons, upon Perſon that were juſt cured, and on others who had been cured above two Years.—When, to the eternal Honour of KEYSER, there was not found a ſingle Inſtance of Failure. Immediately after which Tranſaction, an Hoſpital was eſtabliſhed, where theſe Pills are now adminiſtered in all Venereal Complaints; and from whence not leſs than ſeven Thouſand Patients have in a ſhort Time been perfectly cured, and diſmiſſed. His Majeſty, in Reward to ſuch important Services to Mankind, hath ſettled a Penſion of ſeven Hundred and Fifty Pounds per Annum on Dr. KEYSER; Who has likewiſe received Teſtimonies of Cures performed by his Pills, from moſt of the principal Phyſicians and Surgeons in Europe, who make Uſe of no other Anti-Venereal Remedy in their private Practice; and the learned Faculty at Montpelier in France, having given ſuch great Encomiums of the ſuperior Virtues of this Medicine, that it has been uſed with the greateſt Succeſs in all the Military Hoſpitals in that Kingdom.

This grand Reſtorative of the Human Frame, is, by the Appointment, ſold by T. POWELL only, at SIX DOLLARS a Box, each containing about One Hundred and Ten Pills, with full Directions for taking them, and enabling the Patient to judge of his own Diſeaſe.——One Box, unleſs in an inveterate Complaint, is generally ſufficient to perfect a Cure.

N. B. The Vender of the above Pills, is ſo confident (from ſeveral authenticated Teſtimonies, and the Aſſurances he has received from the Proprietor) of their proving efficacious in every Stage of the Veneral Diſeaſe, that he hereby promiſes to return the Money if a complete Cure is not performed, provided the Patient adheres to the Manner of taken them, as is given in the printed Directions.

LONDON, APRIL 2.

Subſtance of the SPEECH of the Hon. CONSTANTINE PHIPPS, when a Committee for enquiring into the cauſe of the riots, was appointed.

I AM heartily glad that you have at laſt come to the reſolution of appointing a Committee of Enquiry. Such an eſtabliſhment has long been wanting; and many have been the attempts of the minority to ſet it on foot. But the miniſterial champions are never rouſed but by their own danger. It was in vain that we called upon them to enquire into the cauſes of the riots in St. George's Fields, at Brentford, and other places. The ſafety of their conſtituents was to them a matter of no moment. Little ſolicitous about the general weal, they conſulted their own private emolument. Provided they could enjoy their places, and penſions, and contracts, in eaſe and ſecurity, they were ready to wink at domeſtic tumults, as well as foreign encroachments.—The ſame ſpirit which dictated the relinquiſhment of our right to Falkland Iſland, and the Manilla Ranſom, occaſioned the ſacrifice of the national police.

But now the evil comes home to themſelves; riot knocks at the door, and will not ſuffer them to divide with ſecurity. What is the conſequence?—They are alarmed. Their lips tremble, and their hearts palpitate. You may mark out every enemy to his country by the paleneſs of his cadaverous face, and the viſible terror which ſhakes his frame. Where now is that bluſtering manner, that inſulting tone, and that important attitude, which uſed to diſtinguiſh the miniſter? O mortality! how frail art thou!—

I ſhould be ſorry to ſee the confuſion of the times of Cade, Wat Tyler, and Jack Straw, return. And it is for that reaſon I would adviſe you to forbear your intended acts of oppreſſion. For, however much the hiſtory of thoſe times may be diſguiſed, it is eaſy for a penetrating eye to diſcover that the impoſition of the rich was the cauſe of the inſurrection. Similar cauſes will always produce ſimilar effects. The people think themſelves now plundered and oppreſſed: For, let me tell you, your preſent violence is not the ſole cauſe of this day's diſturbance. It is not one or two unpopular acts that will ſtir up the people againſt the authority of this Houſe. A ſeries of impoliſhe meaſures is neceſſary. Nor have theſe been wanting. What do you think of the Middleſex election? What of St. George's fields, and of Brentford? What of inflaming Ireland, of rendering America diſaffected, and of putting a total ſtop to our trade? You paid the King's debts, without aſking how they were contracted. You approved the convention, though it coſt us above three millions, and ſecured none of the objects in diſpute. Of theſe and innumerable other imprudent acts you have been guilty; and yet you vote that a committee ſhall be appointed to enquire into the cauſes of this day's riot! O ſeri ſtudiorum! You muſt be backward ſcholars indeed, if you cannot explain the ſecret. There is no myſtery in the caſe. The matter is clear as noon day; and he that runs may read. The very men, who propoſe the inquiry, are themſelves the root of the evil. Hinc mihi prima mali labes. From that bench ſprung up every plague, as from Pandora's box. If you will not be convinced by my aſſertions, conſult the multitude; apply for information to the men, of whoſe irregularities you complain. They will not conceal the truth, but openly tell the ſame ſtory. Nay, they have told it you already, and in a rougher manner than you could wiſh. What were their ſalutations? Inſtead of ſhouts and acclamations, which will naturally attend good miniſters, they have regaled you with hiſſes and execrations. Do not your rent cloaths and begrimed faces ſtill bear the marks of their civility? After ſuch ſtrong proofs, ſuch undoubted teſtimonies, concerning the cauſe of this popular tumult, how can we be ſtill at a loſs for the proper method of proceeding? To me the caſe is extremely clear. We muſt begin with a reformation at home. We muſt follow the maxim of the ancient philoſopher, "Know thyſelf." Then we ſhall be better qualified for enquiring into the conduct of others. Upon this plan alone I approve of the committee. If it be meant only for ſilencing the natural language of freedom, for tying the tongues and chaining the limbs of freemen, I give it my negative; becauſe I am convinced it will only exaſperate and enrage. That, I own, is a good reaſon why it ſhould be adopted by the miniſtry. Their ſyſtem of politics is founded on fear, not on love. Oderint dum metuant is their motto. What a pity is it that fear has now changed ſides, and flutters on the miniſterial ſtandard!
